Summary: After a welcome by the co-chairs, the working group did a deep dive on a student conduct concern brought up at the last CLC meeting. Next Justin Bernstine reviewed the off-campus student conduct reports since February of 2023, there were 15 reports from single family homes and 5 from apartment or condo communities. He also reviewed the actions taken for each report before taking questions from neighbors. Following this Gwen Coleman reviewed upcoming visits to nearby apartment communities, then the group discussed verbal updates on the rest of the agenda items. The co-chairs agreed to move the next date of the Working Group to January 22nd, 2024.
